- (b) Provide a brief summary of the corporate governance policy that the board of directors has adopted. Please emphasize the policy/ies relative to the treatment of all shareholders, respect for the rights of minority shareholders and of other stakeholders, disclosure duties, and board responsibilities.

Geograce's corporate governance policy outlines the specific roles of the board of directors, the Chairman, CEO, compliance officer, corporate secretary, committees, external and internal auditors. Said policy also indicates the compliance system of the company, reportorial or disclosure system, treatment of shareholders and measures on respecting the rights of shareholders. The company is committed to respect the following rights of the shareholders: right to vote; power of inspection; right to information; right to dividend; and appraisal right. Although all shareholders should be treated equally or without discrimination, the Board may give minority shareholders the right to propose the holding of meetings and the items for discussion in the agenda that relate directly to the business of the Corporation as far as practicable and consistent with the relevant provisions of the By-Laws.

- (c) How often does the Board review and approve the vision and mission?

The Company's vision and mission statement is reviewed and approved by the Board as often as needed or required.

- (d) Directorship in Other Companies

(i) Directorship in the Company's Group²

Identify, as and if applicable, the members of the company's Board of Directors who hold the office of director in other companies within its Group:

Director's Name	Corporate Name of the Group Company	Type of Directorship (Executive, Non-Executive, Independent). Indicate if director is also the Chairman.
N/A

(ii) Directorship in Other Listed Companies

Identify, as and if applicable, the members of the company's Board of Directors who are also directors of publicly-listed companies outside of its Group:

Director's Name	Name of Listed Company	Type of Directorship (Executive, Non-Executive, Independent). Indicate if director is also the Chairman.

(iv) Has the company set a limit on the number of board seats in other companies (publicly listed, ordinary and companies with secondary license) that an individual director or CEO may hold simultaneously? In particular, is the limit of five board seats in other publicly listed companies imposed and observed? If yes, briefly describe other guidelines:

² The Group is composed of the parent, subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures of the company.

No specific limit has been expressly provided as the high attendance turnout during Board meetings shows that the other directorships held by the Company's current directors do not pose as a hindrance for the performance by the relevant director of his functions and obligations to the Company.

2) Chairman and CEO

(a) Do different persons assume the role of Chairman of the Board of Directors and CEO? If no, describe the checks and balances laid down to ensure that the Board gets the benefit of independent views.

Yes

No

Identify the Chair and CEO:

Chairman of the Board	Chi Ho Co
CEO/President	Jose Francisco E. Miranda

The presence of internal controls, such as: (a) a Board that ensures that the Corporation is properly and effectively managed and supervised; (b) an independent audit mechanism to monitor the adequacy and effectiveness of the Corporation's governance, operations, and information systems, including the reliability and integrity of financial and operational information, effectiveness and efficiency of operations, safeguarding of assets, and compliance with laws, rules, regulations and contracts; and (c) an effective internal control system, which shall include control objectives and common control points for financial reporting as well as roles and responsibilities in executing and monitoring internal control in the Corporation, provides a system of check and balance.

In addition, the Board ensures that the Corporation is properly and effectively managed and supervised. The Board is responsible for identifying and electing a President as well as for approving and implementing a process of evaluation of his or her performance both on an on-going and annual basis. An evaluation of the President's performance shall be made annually by the Non-executive Directors based on objective and subjective criteria such as performance of the business, accomplishment of long-term strategic objectives, management development and organizational development.

(b) Roles, Accountabilities and Deliverables

Define and clarify the roles, accountabilities and deliverables of the Chairman and CEO.

	Chairman	Chief Executive Officer
Role	The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall preside at the meetings of the directors and the stockholders. He shall also exercise such powers and perform such duties as the Board of Directors may assign to him.	The President, who shall be a director, shall be the Chief Executive Officer of the corporation and shall also have administration and direction of the day-to-day business affairs of the corporation.
Accountabilities		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> a) To preside at the meetings of the Board of Directors and of the stockholders in the absence of the Chairman of the Board of Directors. b) To initiate and develop corporate objectives and policies and formulate long range projects, plans and programs for the approval of the Board of Directors, including those for executive training, development and compensation; c) To have general supervision and management of the business affairs and properties of the corporation; d) To ensure that the administrative and operational policies of the corporation are carried out under his supervision and control; e) Subject to guidelines prescribed by law, to appoint, remove, suspend or discipline employees of the corporation, prescribe their duties, and determine their salaries. f) To oversee the preparation of the
Deliverables

		budgets and the statements of accounts of the corporation; g) To prepare such statements and reports of the corporation as may be required of him by law; h) To represent the corporation at all functions and proceedings; i) To execute on behalf of the corporation all contracts, agreements and other instruments affecting the interests of the corporation which require the approval of the Board of Directors, except as otherwise directed by the Board of Directors; j) To make reports of the Board of Directors and stockholders; k) To sign certificates of stock; l) To perform such other duties as are incident to his office or are entrusted to him by the Board of Directors.

- 3) Explain how the board of directors plan for the succession of the CEO/Managing Director/President and the top key management positions?

The Nomination Committee shall periodically review the Corporation's succession plans for the President and, as needed, make recommendations to the Board regarding the selection of individuals to fill this position. There shall be an annual report to the Board by the Nomination Committee on the Corporation's plans regarding its President and other senior management succession planning.

An evaluation of the President's performance shall be made annually by the Non-executive Directors based on objective and subjective criteria such as performance of the business, accomplishment of long-term strategic objectives, management development and organizational development.

- 4) Other Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors

Does the company have a policy of ensuring diversity of experience and background of directors in the board? Please explain.

The directors shall possess such qualifications for membership in the Board as prescribed by the Corporation Code, Securities Regulation Code and other relevant laws, rules and regulations. The Non-executive Directors shall possess such qualifications and stature that would enable them to effectively participate in the deliberations of the Board.

In addition, the Corporation shall require all of its directors before assuming office as such, to attend a seminar on corporate governance conducted by a duly recognized private or government institute.

Among others, the following qualifications shall be considered in a director's nomination and election to the Board:

- i. College education or equivalent academic degree;
- ii. Practical understanding of the business of the Corporation;
- iii. Membership in good standing in relevant industry, business or professional organizations; and
- iv. Vast and successful business experience.

Does it ensure that at least one non-executive director has an experience in the sector or industry the company belongs to? Please explain.

In addition to the minimum qualifications for each nominee described above, at least one (1) Non-Executive Director should have experience in the sector or industry in which the Corporation belongs to.

Define and clarify the roles, accountabilities and deliverables of the Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors:

	Executive	Non-Executive	Independent Director
Role	As the President is likewise a member of the board, the roles, accountabilities, and deliverables of a non-executive director are likewise applicable to him. In addition thereto, the President: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. is the head and legal representative of the Corporation, and shall preside at all meetings, when the Chairman of the Board is absent; ii. shall manage and have general supervision of the affairs of the company; iii. shall sign and countersign, all certifications, checks and warrants, and as authorized by the Board of Directors, all contracts, and other instruments of the Company; 	A director's office is one of trust and confidence. He/She shall act in a manner characterized by transparency, accountability and fairness. He/She should exercise leadership, prudence, and integrity in directing the Corporation towards sustained progress. It is the Board's responsibility to foster the long-term success of the Corporation, and to sustain its competitiveness and profitability in a manner consistent with its corporate objectives and the best interests of its shareholders. The Board shall formulate the Corporation's vision, mission, strategic objectives, policies and procedures that shall guide its activities, including the means to effectively monitor Management's performance, and take care of the interests of the shareholders and protect their investment through the implementation of sound corporate policies and plans while maintaining its independent assessment on Management's performance.
Accountabilities	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> iv. shall make reports to the Directors and Stockholders; v. shall see that the resolutions of the Board of Directors are duly implemented. 	A member of the Board shall: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> i. conduct himself with honesty and integrity; ii. conduct fair business transactions with the Corporation iii. ensure that personal interest does not bias Board decisions nor conflict with the interests of the Corporation; iv. devote time and attention necessary to properly discharge his/her duties and responsibilities; v. act judiciously; vi. exercise independent judgment; vii. have a working knowledge of the statutory and regulatory requirements

		affecting the Corporation viii. observe confidentiality; and, ix. ensure the continuing soundness, effectiveness and adequacy of the Corporation's control environment
Deliverables		The Board shall: i. Install and implement a process for the selection of directors; ii. Appoint competent, professional, honest and highly motivated management officers, and adopt an effective succession planning program for Management; iii. Identify the Corporation's major and other stakeholders and formulate a clear policy on communicating or relating with them through an effective investor relations program; iv. Adopt a system of internal checks and balances; v. Identify key risk areas and key performance indicators and monitor these factors with due diligence; vi. Properly discharge Board functions by meeting regularly and all such meetings shall be duly minuted; vii. Provide sound strategic policies and guidelines to the Corporation on major capital expenditures; viii. Identify the sectors in the community in which the Corporation operates or are directly affected by its operations, and formulate a clear policy of accurate, timely and effective communication with them; ix. Formulate and implement policies and procedures that would ensure the integrity and transparency of related party transactions; x. Constitute an Audit Committee and such other committees it deems necessary; xi. Establish and maintain an alternative dispute resolution system in the Corporation; and xii. Appoint a Compliance Officer.

Provide the company's definition of "independence" and describe the company's compliance to the definition.

The company's definition of an independent director is as follows: An independent director means a person, who, apart from his/ her fees and shareholdings, is independent of management and free from any business or other relationship which could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with his/ her exercise of independent judgment in carrying out his/ her responsibilities as a director of the corporation. He must also possess all the qualifications and none of the disqualifications of an independent director provided under SRC Rule 38, the SEC Revised Code of Corporate Governance, and other relevant SEC issuances and regulations.

Does the company have a term limit of five consecutive years for independent directors? If after two years, the company wishes to bring back an independent director who had served for five years, does it limit the term for no more than four additional years? Please explain.

The Company follows the SEC's guidelines on setting the term limit for an Independent Director as set forth in SEC Memorandum Circular 9, Series of 2011 on the Term Limits for Independent Directors, which took effect on January 2, 2012.

To ensure that the objectivity and impartiality of an independent director is not compromised, an independent director shall be ineligible for nomination and re-election, after serving the Company for five (5) consecutive years. However, after a "cooling off" period of two (2) years, the independent director may be re-elected as an independent director of the Company. During this period, such person should not engage in any activity that, under the Securities Regulation Code and other relevant rules, disqualifies him from being elected as an independent director. Re-election of a person who has served as an independent director for five years is allowed after the mandatory two-year cooling-off period. Upon reelection, such person may serve as an independent director for another four consecutive years. However, after serving for ten (10) years, a person is perpetually barred from serving as an independent director, without prejudice to his being elected as such in other companies outside the Company.

5) Changes in the Board of Directors (Executive, Non-Executive and Independent Directors)

(a) Resignation/Death/Removal

Indicate any changes in the composition of the Board of Directors that happened during the period:

Name	Position	Date of Cessation	Reason
Jerry C. Angping	Director	October 1, 2012	Time constraints imposed by other business activities

(b) Selection/Appointment, Re-election, Disqualification, Removal, Reinstatement and Suspension

Describe the procedures for the selection/appointment, re-election, disqualification, removal, reinstatement and suspension of the members of the Board of Directors. Provide details of the processes adopted (including the frequency of election) and the criteria employed in each procedure:

Procedure	Process Adopted	Criteria
a. Selection/Appointment

6) Orientation and Education Program

- (a) Disclose details of the company's orientation program for new directors, if any.

The Company, under the direction of the Nomination Committee, as mandated by its Corporate Governance Guidelines for the Board of Directors, conducts an orientation for newly elected members of the Board. This orientation shall familiarize each new Director with, among other things, the Company's business, strategic plans, significant financial, accounting and risk management issues, compliance programs, conflicts policies, code of business conduct, corporate governance and principal officers. Such new Director shall, as appropriate, attend outside director education courses sponsored by recognized organizations. It shall also include meetings with and presentations by key management and visits to Company facilities.

- (b) State any in-house training and external courses attended by Directors and Senior Management³ for the past three (3) years:

The Board recognizes the importance of continuing education of its members. Each director is expected to participate, as appropriate, in continuing education in order to maintain the necessary level of expertise to perform his or her responsibilities as a director. The Board acknowledges that director continuing education may be provided in a variety of different forms, including external or internal education programs, presentations or briefings on particular topics, educational materials, meetings with key management and visits to Corporation facilities. The Corporation, under the direction of the Nomination Committee, will assist the Board in pursuing continuing education programs for its directors.

The company is in the process of developing in-house training programs and identifying relevant external courses for the Directors and Senior Management.

B. CODE OF BUSINESS CONDUCT & ETHICS

- 1) Discuss briefly the company's policies on the following business conduct or ethics affecting directors, senior management and employees:

Business Conduct & Ethics	Directors	Senior Management	Employees
(a) Conflict of Interest	Directors, Officers and employees have a duty of loyalty to Geograce and are therefore expected to always act in Geograce's best interests. A conflict arises when the personal interests or activities of an employee influence or have the potential to influence the exercise of his or her judgment in the performance of his or her duties. Conflicts of interest and even the appearance of a conflict of interest may compromise Geograce's reputation and must be avoided. Geograce respects its employees' right to privacy in their personal activities and

³ Senior Management refers to the CEO and other persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the company.

	financial affairs. It is the responsibility of each employee to ensure that his or her personal conduct adheres to high levels of professional and ethical standards of conduct and make the proper disclosures, whenever applicable, to allow the Company to determine and address conflicts of interest issues.,
(b) Conduct of Business and Fair Dealings	The Company believes in dealing fairly with its competition and other stakeholders. Geograce requires its Directors, Officers and employees to avoid taking unfair advantage of anyone through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts, or any unfair dealing practice.
(c) Receipt of gifts from third parties	Directors, officers and employees are not permitted to give or accept, directly or indirectly such as gifts and business courtesies that might create the appearance of an impropriety, cash payments, discounts or vouchers, no matter how small, must not be accepted in your personal capacity in any circumstances from current or potential Geograce customers, suppliers, vendors or other contractors.
(d) Compliance with Laws & Regulations	Geograce is subject to a number of laws, rules and regulations with respect to the conduct of its business. Directors, Officers and employees are expected to maintain compliance with the letter and spirit of all laws governing the jurisdictions in which they perform their duties.
(e) Respect for Trade Secrets/Use of Non-public Information	During the normal course of business, employees may have access to non-public information regarding Geograce's customers, suppliers, operations, strategic plans, financial affairs, employees and trade secrets, among other things. This information is a key corporate asset and every employee has an obligation to protect it and keep it in the strictest confidence, except when disclosure is explicitly authorized pursuant to the Corporation's Disclosure Policy or when disclosure is legally required. The unauthorized use or disclosure of Geograce's confidential information could destroy its value and give unfair advantage to others. Care should be taken in disposing of documents containing confidential information, for example, shredding documents, before discarding. An employee's obligation to protect Geograce's confidential information exists whether or not the information is explicitly labelled as being confidential and the obligation continues even after leaving the employ of Geograce.
(f) Use of Company Funds, Assets and Information	Employees, officers and directors owe a duty to Geograce to advance its legitimate interests when the opportunity arises to do so. Except as otherwise permitted in Geograce's Code of Ethics, employees, officers and directors, may not (a) take for themselves opportunities that are discovered through the use of Geograce property, information or position; (b) use Geograce's property, information, or position for personal gain; or (c) compete with Geograce. All employees of Geograce should endeavour to protect Geograce's assets and ensure they are used for legitimate business purposes only. Theft, carelessness and waste have a direct impact on Geograce's profitability. Any suspected incidents of fraud or theft should be immediately reported for investigation. The assets of Geograce include information, equipment, office supplies, hardware, software, intellectual property and time. Such assets may not be used for personal benefit, nor may they be sold, borrowed or given away without proper authorization. Occasional personal use of certain corporate resources (e.g. computer, fax, e-mail) is acceptable where the interests of Geograce are not adversely affected.
(g) Employment & Labor Laws & Policies	It is the Company's policy to comply with all applicable laws and regulations, including those concerning hours, compensation, opportunity, human rights and working conditions. Geograce strictly prohibits discrimination or harassment against any employee because of the individual's race, ethnicity, color, religion, gender, sexual orientation, age, and disability. In addition to local laws and regulations, the Company prohibits the employment of people under the age of 18. Forced or compulsory labor of any workers is also prohibited. It is also Geograce's policy that all employees work in a clean, orderly and safe environment. The Company requires full compliance with applicable workplace

	safety and industrial hygiene standards
(h) Disciplinary action	To strictly observe and implement the provisions of this Manual, the following penalties shall be imposed, after notice and hearing, on the Corporation's directors, officers and staff in case of violation of any of the provision of this Manual: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ In case of first violation, the subject person shall be reprimanded. ➤ Suspension from office shall be imposed in case of second violation. The duration of the suspension shall depend on the gravity of the violation. ➤ For third violation, the maximum penalty of removal from office shall be imposed. The commission of a third violation of this Manual by any member of the Board of the Corporation shall be sufficient cause for removal from directorship.
(i) Whistle Blower	No retaliatory action of any kind will be permitted against anyone reporting any violation in the company's code of ethics in good faith, and the Company's Audit Committee will strictly enforce this prohibition.
(j) Conflict Resolution	When practical and appropriate under the circumstances, and in order to protect the privacy of the persons involved, those individuals investigating a suspected violation will attempt to keep confidential the identity of the individual or individual who reports a suspected violation or who participates in an investigation.

2) Has the code of ethics or conduct been disseminated to all directors, senior management and employees?

Yes

3) Discuss how the company implements and monitors compliance with the code of ethics or conduct.

Directors, officers, and employees of the Company commit to comply with both the letter and spirit of the Code of Conduct and Ethics and the Company endeavours to obtain the same commitment from its business partners. In this connection, directors and officers should explain to employees and business partners the Company's principles and values set forth in the Code, and emphasize the importance of conducting themselves in accordance with the standards set by the Code in order to attain financial rewards for the Company and to deter wrongdoing.

The Company shall also regularly monitor the compliance of all directors, officer and employees to the Code through the Audit Committee and encourages the reporting of known and suspected violations of the Code.

G. INTERNAL AUDIT AND CONTROL

1) Internal Control System

Disclose the following information pertaining to the internal control system of the company:

(a) Explain how the internal control system is defined for the company;

Internal audit is an independent, objective assurance and consulting activity designed to add value and improve an organization's operations. It helps an organization accomplish its objectives by bringing a systematic, disciplined approach to evaluate and improve the effectiveness of risk management, control, and governance processes. Internal auditing is a catalyst for improving an organization's governance, risk management and management controls by providing insight and recommendations based on analyses and assessments of data and business processes. With commitment to integrity and accountability, internal auditing provides value to governing bodies and senior management as an objective source of independent advice.

Internal control aims to ensure that the Corporation's business activities are efficient and proficient, financial reporting is reliable and that applicable laws, regulations and internal policies are followed.

The control environment of the Corporation consists of the following: (i) The Board who ensures that the Corporation is properly and effectively managed and supervised; (ii) A Management who actively manages and operates the Corporation in a sound and prudent manner; (iii) Organizational and procedural controls supported by effective management information and Risk Management reporting systems; (iv) An independent audit mechanism to monitor the adequacy and effectiveness of the Corporation's governance, operations, and information systems, including the reliability and integrity of financial and operational information, effectiveness and efficiency of operations, safeguarding of assets, and compliance with laws, rules, regulations and contracts; and (v) An effective internal control system, which shall include control objectives and common control points for financial reporting as well as roles and responsibilities in executing and monitoring internal control in the Corporation.

Implementation of the Internal Controls shall be a joint effort by and among the Board, various committees, particularly the Audit Committee, CEO and Chief Finance Officer. It must be implemented to provide reasonable, and not absolute, assurance on the integrity and reliability of the financial statements. Measures must also be in place to safeguard, verify and maintain accountability of its assets and to detect fraud, potential liability, and loss and material misstatement.

(b) A statement that the directors have reviewed the effectiveness of the internal control system and whether they consider them effective and adequate;

2013A Certification signed by the Compliance Officer that the Company has substantially adopted all the provisions of the Manual on Corporate Governance for 2012 was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on 3 January 2013.

(c) Period covered by the review;

1 January 2012 to 31 December 2012

(d) How often internal controls are reviewed and the directors' criteria for assessing the effectiveness of the internal control system; and

When RPTs are involved, what processes are in place to address them in the manner that will safeguard the interest of the company and in particular of its minority shareholders and other stakeholders?

All Related-Party Transactions must be brought to the Management's attention. On an annual basis, each of the directors and executive officers are required to complete a questionnaire designed to elicit information about any potential Related-Party Transactions.

Any potential Related-Party Transaction that is raised will be analyzed by the Corporation's Legal Department, in consultation with Management and, whenever warranted, the Corporation's External Auditor. The team will determine whether the transaction or relationship does, in fact, constitute a Related-Party Transaction requiring compliance with the policies set forth in the Company's Amended Manual on Corporate Governance. If it is determined that the transaction or relationship is in fact a Related-Party Transaction, the same shall be subject to the review and approval of the Audit Committee.

The Audit Committee shall be guided by the following parameters in the approval of Related Party Transactions: (i) there should be good demonstrable business reasons for the Corporation to enter into the Related Party Transaction; (ii) the Related-Party Transaction should not impair the independence of a director; and (iii) the Related-Party Transaction should not present an improper conflict of interests for any director, executive officer or employee of the Corporation, taking into account the size of the transaction, the overall financial position of the director, executive officer or employee, the direct or indirect nature of the interest of the director, executive officer or employee in the transaction, the ongoing nature of any proposed relationship, and any other relevant factors.
